Dear Ms. Revella,

Please accept this letter as my deepest apology for any inconvenience that you may have experienced regarding your name appearing in the United Store Mutual Association (USMA) database. I do not know how this could have happened, but I assure you that your name has been removed and the record has been deleted.

Our records indicate that you resigned your position from our location in Shirley, NY on January 12, 2004 under good terms.

Should you have any questions regarding this matter please feel free to contact me directly. If any potential or past employers of yours would like to discuss this further please feel free to direct them to me.

Sincerely,

Kevin Rizzardi

Dear Ms. Revella-nemeth:

After receiving your dispute regarding information in your file at USIS, USIS conducted an investigation of your dispute. That reinvestigation has been completed. Enclosed is your current file. Any disputed information that has not at this time been verified has been deleted. The furnisher of that information has verified the disputed information that remains.

The procedure used by USIS to reinvestigate a dispute is to directly contact that furnisher of the information of the information and advise them of your dispute. They in turn advise us whether the information currently stored by USIS is correct. The source of the information is normally the records of the company or personal knowledge of the person being interviewed of the events in question. The furnisher's business name, address and telephone number are the same as listed on the report.

If you have not already done so, you have the right to place a statement in your file setting forth the reasons why you dispute certain information or believe that it is incomplete, or to provide an explanation of some negative information. You also may revise your statement at any time. To enter or revise your statement, contact USIS at 1-800-381-0645. USIS personnel will assist you in formulating your statement.

If information has been deleted from your report or if you have added a statement, you are entitled to have a copy of your current report with your statement sent to any person(s) specifically identified by you who received the report within the last two years that contained the deleted or disputed information. USIS may impose a charge for providing those notices. To determine those charges, just ask the consumer consultant representative.

If you have any questions, please contact us at 1-800-381-0645

Sincerely,

Consumer Consulting Department
